THE GRIZZLY

Butler County Community College

El Dorado, Kansas 67042 Vol. 53

New Buildings Change Look Of Campus

The 1981-82 school term became a year of changes for the college. Physically, the college changed with the addition of new buildings. Two new eight-plex dormitory buildings, one for males and one for females, resemble houses. Each contains a kitchen area with cooking facilities, a living and dining area, and two private bathrooms.

The campus grew with construction of a new building housing the nursing department, journalism, chorus, instrumental music, laboratory science, photography, and audio visual.

For fall, a five percent hike over the preceding year in enrollment resulted when 2,327 students enrolled.

The 1981 football squad was undefeated and ranked number two in the National Rankings before playoffs started. This was the first time Butler was ranked nationally in twenty years.

The year 1981 brought several changes in physical appearance in education, and in school spirit to the campus. The changes are only the beginning of what the campus will encounter as it prepares itself for the students of the future.

New Look

Dorm Life

BCCC added two dormitories to the campus this year. The dorms housed 16 students, eight men and eight women. The new dorms came equipped with kitchens. Sophomores were eligible to live in the new dorms. The old dorm housed 116 students, 58 each, men and women. Student relaxing in the old dorm are, clockwise: Jeff Sanders, Greg Blackman, Julie Morgan, Louis Craft, and Melanie Crow.

Class Time

Homecoming 81

Kim Rising, freshman from Dexter, was crowned 1981 Football Homecoming Queen. Rising was nominated by the cross country team, and A. C. Poynter, a sophomore from Wichita, was elected King and was nominated by the drill team.

Homecoming festivities began with a Friday morning assembly in the Auditorium where the king and queen were crowned. The parade and game were on Saturday.

Homecoming Parade And Halftime Action

In the Saturday morning homecoming parade, floats and the Pep Band were featured. The drill team performed at half-time at the homecoming game. The Grizzlies were victorious over Dodge City, 45-6.

Fair Activities

What Did That Say?

The yearbook staff sponsored its first annual Funny T-shirt contest this year. The contest was held in late September. Students were asked to wear their favorite, funny T-shirt. Approximately twenty students participated in the Contest with two Freshman, Lisa Stalcup and Brian Cook each winning a five dollar prize for wearing the funniest T-shirt.

Grizzly Staff Gets New Area

Working out of packing boxes in its temporary headquarters, The Grizzly staff got off to a slow start. The group started the semester in the trailer on the back parking lot, and the week before finals made the move into the new building.

Editor-in-chief, Jay Baumann, and advisor Jo Rogers attended the national convention of the Associated Collegiate Press in Miami Beach. They attended sessions that provided them with special ideas used in preparation of the yearbook.

The Lantern Exposes Everything

The Lantern, BCCC's weekly student newspaper, was to wind up the year with nearly 30 issues, including a football homecoming edition and an extra heralding the football team's rise to national championship.

The student-published paper, which has won state and national awards, did not sidestep issues important to students and top news stories that involved investigation by reporters and editors. Included were stories discussing controversy over yearbook bidding and questions about funding a football fan trip to Colorado, as well as the consumption of alcoholic beverages by outside groups in the Student Union.

Jill Olson and Alisa Sixkiller comprised the production staff. Bill Bidwell was faculty adviser.

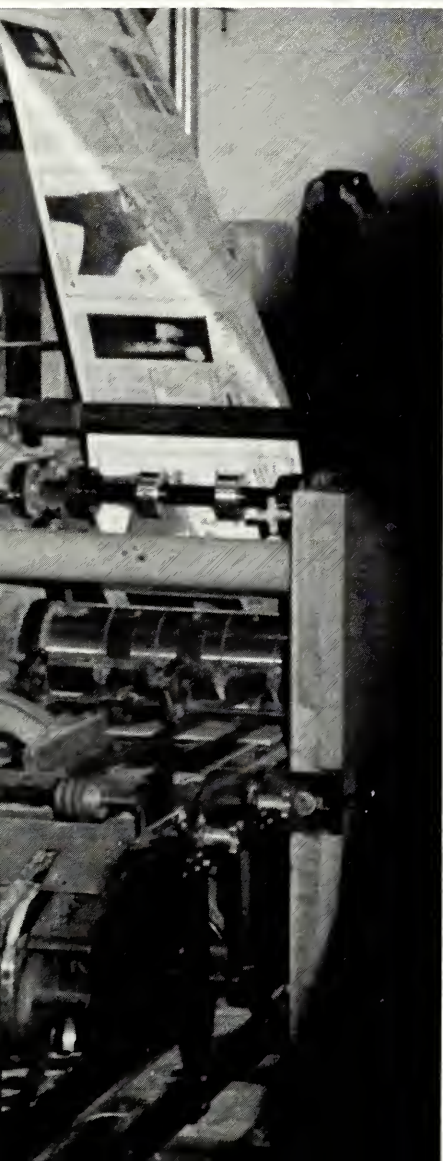

TOM HARMS, editor-in-chief, crashes under his desk the morning after an all night session working to beat the deadline on the newspaper. Larry Erickson, chief photographer, enlarges a photo in the dark room in the new building which journalism moved into for second semester.

At Work

Cheerleaders Are Split

Despite the thrill of leading cheers for winning teams in both football and basketball, several cheerleaders chose to give up their positions during the school term.

First semester football cheerleaders were sophomores Julie Brownwood, Sondra Huggins, Laurie Potter, and Annette Sowder. Second semester, Potter and Sowder quit and were replaced by sophomore Valerie Edwards and freshmen Lori Horner and Arlene Reekie. Then Huggins and Reekie pulled out of the squad but Huggins appeared as the bear mascot several times.

Honeybears, A Hit

A chorus line touch was added to the football and basketball games by the Honeybear drill team. The drill team performed most of its routines to live music played by the pep band. The Honeybears received new uniforms for the basketball season, also.

The squad had six returning sophomores. They were Michele Webb, captain; Roxanne Seager, co-captain; Debbie Bogart, Felicia Butts, and Melody Doyal. Freshmen members included LeeAnn Griffith, DeeAnn Griffith, Andrea Turner, Sue Kelley, Cathy Canady, Paula Harms, and Darcy Ralston and Toni Pollard who left the squad at the end of first semester. All Butler County women who are on the drill team receive scholarships to attend BCCC.

SAC On The Go

By planning movies, football homecoming activities, skating parties, a ski trip, and dances, the Student Activity Council was kept busy. Brenda Johnson served as first semester president, and Jeff Cox served second semester. Members of SAC include: Jeff Cox, Brenda Johnson, Gary Leach, Phillip Banks, Karen Sommerhauser, Leanne Hillwig, Kerry Dees, Brad Habermehl, John Ingalls, Steve Foster, and Debra Sawtelle, advisor.

JEFF COX served as second semester SAC president. Brenda Johnson served as first semester SAC president.

Bands Play Around

The Pep and Concert Band performed at football and basketball games and for three on-campus concerts throughout the year. The same members make up both bands.

The Pep Band performed at away games at Coffeyville, Cowley County, and at the Rodeo Bowl game held in Arkansas City.

The pep band performed for the Honeybears' routine at both football and basketball games.

The band members and director received a plaque from the football team and coaches thanking them for the support that was given to the team by the band.

The concert band presented a Christmas concert and two spring concerts. Doug Talbott directed the bands.

Butler Jazz Band Performs In Nevada

The Jazz Band's biggest event of the year was traveling to Reno, Nevada for the International Jazz Festival, March 9 through 15. The band's members were also invited to the Bethel Invitational Jazz festival in Newton.

The band performed three on-campus concerts and went on fall and spring tours to area high schools accompanied by the Headliners, a vocal group.

The Jazz Band was under the direction of Doug Talbott.

Vocal Numbers Up

The vocal department made many changes and advances this year with its new director, Linda Pohly. Many more participated in vocal music than formerly.

The new name given to the collegiate singers, a select group of 14 vocalists, was "The Headliners." First semester Headliners included Michelle Nolan, Sharon McVicar, Kelly Palmer, Cathy Browning, Kathy Griggs, Valerie Cornwell, Janice Paisley, Terri Wallace, David Heinrich, Jeff Meyer, Jay Baumann, Jeff Regier, Matt Krause, and John Ingalls. Jim Speer joined the group second semester and Browning left. Nancy Johnson was accompanist for the singers.

The Headliners performed publicly many times throughout the year at churches, clubs, and area high schools.

In February, Roger Emerson, vocal clinician, conductor and arranger from California, was on campus and held a workshop with the Headliners and area high school pops groups.

The choir made an enrollment increase from 24 first semester to 33 members second semester compared to last year's 10 members. Participating members this year included both faculty and students.

BCCC Depicts Dramas

The first production of two given by the theater department in the fall was Philemon, a contemporary musical. The story evolved around a clown, Cockian, who was arrested and then bribed by the government to get secrets from the other prisoners. The play was dramatically presented with the aid of song and dance. The cast included: Howard Stewart as Cockian, Lorraine Romano as Kiki, Jill Angel as Marseyas, Pete Henderson as Andos, Thad Wilson as Servillus, Mathew Kraus as the Commander, and Gina Starkey as the wife.

The second show of the season was The Diary of Anne Frank. The story dramatized the difficulties faced by two families forced to hide to avoid being captured by the Nazis. The cast included: Camillia Litchfield as Anne Frank, Gary Leach as Mr. Frank, Lisa Hagan as Mrs. Frank, Stacy Wilson as Margot Frank, Stephen Johnston as Mr. Van Daan, Christina Maria Alfaro as Mrs. Van Daan, Peter Albright as Peter Van Daan, David Heinrich as Mr. Kraler, David E. Leeper as Mr. Dussel, and Alisa Sixkiller as Miep.

COCKIAN, portrayed by Harold Stewart is executed by Servillus, played by Thad Wilson. Top Left, Marseyas, played by Jill Angell, is the wife of Cockian, and she sings a haunting love song to him in the contemporary musical presented in the fall and directed by Larry Peters.

CAMMY LITCHFIELD portrays Anne Frank in the drama The Diary of Ann Frank. She become friends with Peter Van Daan, played by Peter Albright. Left, the Frank and Van Daan families are together to celebrate the Frank family's holiday of Hanukkah.

Delta Psi

Delta Psi Omega is a national honorary drama fraternity on the Butler County campus. Kansas has seven chapters and there are 200 national chapters. Butler's Delta Psi chapter is the 95th in the nation. The chapter started on this campus in 1935, and was sponsored by L.W. Nixon. Membership to this fraternity is based on student involvement with drama productions.

To become a member a student must be invited and is required to attend an invitation ceremony where he is asked questions about the fraternity, the Greek Alphabet, and presents a memorized monologue. Delta Psi Omega president is Cammy Litchfield. Other members include Shelley Downey, Janice Paisley, Cindy Bowman, Alisa Sixkiller, Harold Stewart, David Leeper, Rodger Charles, Kerry Dees, Chris Alfaro, Gary Leach, and Jill Angell. Larry Peters was sponsor of the fraternity.

Rodeo Ridin'

The Rodeo Club competed against approximately 20, two and four-year colleges in the Central Plains Region division rodeos in Kansas and Texas this year. The club belongs to the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

Among the projects of the riders were helping the Collegiate 4-H club run a concession stand at the State Fair and co-sponsoring the Hutchinson Rodeo.

J.D. Penwell became the team's coach. The club meets once a week for practice from September through May. High school rodeo experience is required for membership because competition is stiff.

THE LIVESTOCK Judging Team members are Mike McCune, Stewart Natier, David (Scott) Lewis, Karen McCollum, Kim Boone, Lewis Harper, Joe Linot, and Coach Jim Brookover.

DECA Has State Officers

Michelle Smith, BCCC member of Distributive Education Clubs of America, was elected state president of the post secondary division of Kansas. Bob Longnecker was nominated president-elect and is slated to become president in the fall of 1982. DECA is a club for marketing students.

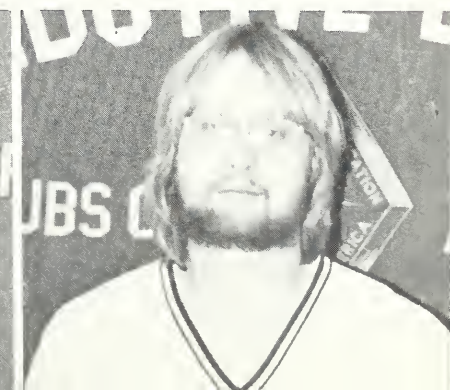

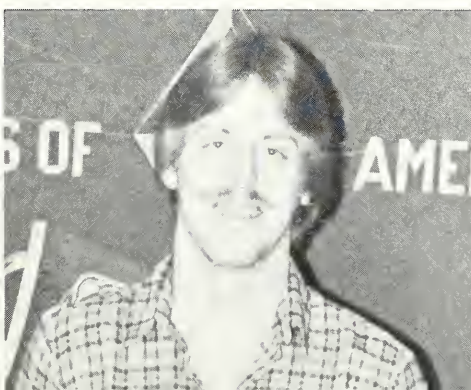

In October they attended a fall development leadership conference at Rock Springs Ranch near Junction City. In November they attended a three day career development conference at Chicago, Illinois. In February they saw Governor John Carlin sign a proclamation for Vocational Education Week in Topeka. In March they attended a state conference at Wichita. They went to New York City for the National Distributive Education Clubs of America Convention in April.

Intramurals Popular

Intramurals are a fun way for teachers and students to forget the classroom hussle and bussle. It's a way to meet more people and for freshmen and sophomores to get to know each other.

"Intramurals didn't really change much in participation from last year," said Jeanette Malone, physical education instructor. Miss Malone plans all the intramurals for the year. The fall semester had 193 participants.

Miss Malone says, "the individual sports were weak in some areas, while the team sports were very strong."

Tennis started the season off with Jeff Regier, the winner. Flag football then followed with Born to Kill emerging as champs. Cox Jock's and Regier's were the other football teams. Jim Keesling was victorious in tossing horse shoes. The Pfingstons won mixed bowling out of 13 teams. Taking the volleyball section was Regier's Follies, followed by the Ace's. Coming away with pool singles was John Kendricks. To end the fall season, Roger Joyce won table tennis singles.

JEFF REGIER, sophomore, was the intramural single tennis winner.

Changing Times- Winning Teams

Grizzlies Are Number One

After finishing 5-3-1 in 1980, the Butler County grid team did a complete turnaround and won the national championship in 1981. The team went through the regular season undefeated, including a 15-14 win over Coffeyville at Coffeyville in the last eight seconds of the game, two Jayhawk Conference playoff wins over Pratt and Coffeyville and a Rodeo Bowl win over the defending national champion, Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Golden Norsemen.

The Grizzlies started out with a convincing 26-0 win over the Air Force Academy junior varsity and never looked back. After that win, the Grizzlies rolled over four Jayhawk Conference opponents to set up the showdown with Coffeyville.

Going into the game, the Ravens and Grizzlies were both 5-0 with a shot at the conference championship. The Grizzlies drew first blood on Mike Nardone's touchdown pass to Tex Allen, but Coffeyville came back and held at 14-9 lead with 2:21 to go in the game.

The Grizzlies started the final drive from their own 42-yard line and converted three fourth down conversions including the winning touchdown, another Nardone pass to Allen.

After that, the Grizzlies completed the regular season and playoffs and faced an encounter with the Golden Norsemen of Northeastern Oklahoma A&M.

The Norsemen scored two first quarter touchdowns but then it was all Butler County as the Grizzlies scored a touchdown in the second quarter and two in the third to clinch the national championship.

'Impossible' Dream Comes True

The realization of an "impossible" dream occurred when the Butler Grizzlies step by step polished off team after team throughout the season. Spectators' frenzy and teammates' and coaches' jubilation were evident at every game, culminating in the big win over Northeastern Oklahoma for the national championship, at the Rodeo Bowl in Arkansas City on November 22.

Spikers Place 4th In Western Conference

The volleyball team ranked fourth in the Western Division Conference at Pratt. The Grizzlies' overall record was 10-19-3 and their junior college ranking was 8-17-2.

Head coach Debra Sawtelle said of the team, "It was a long season but the girls never completely quit. We won nine of our ten matches in the last week of the season and this showed a lot of determination on the part of the team."

The women who went out for the team were sophomores, Marilyn McKinsey, Denise Standerfer, Carolyn McKinsey, Annette Sowder, Angie Armstrong, and Tammy Mann. The freshman team members were Arlene Reekie, Lenda Sherriff, Melanie Crow, Tammy Martin, Heather George, and Sharon McVicar.

Anderson Runs National Meet

In its second year of existence, the women's cross country team did well with three returning squad members, Becky Anderson, Barbara VerKinderen, Vicky Comrie, and new members including Pam Rader, Kim Rising, Linda Stackley, Allison Leake, and Rachel Seager under the tutelage of Coach John Francis.

The women finished third at the Region VI meet in Wichita, ending the season.

Although the Grizzlettes as a team did not qualify for the national meet, Becky Anderson qualified as an individual, finishing 94th in the national field of 134. Her time was 21:01.75.

Harriers Rank 6th, NJCAA

The Grizzly cross country team had a superb year for 1981, compiling three first place finishes and three second place finishes for the season. The harriers placed second in the Region VI meet in Wichita. Butler then went on to place sixth in the NJCAA Championships in Wichita.

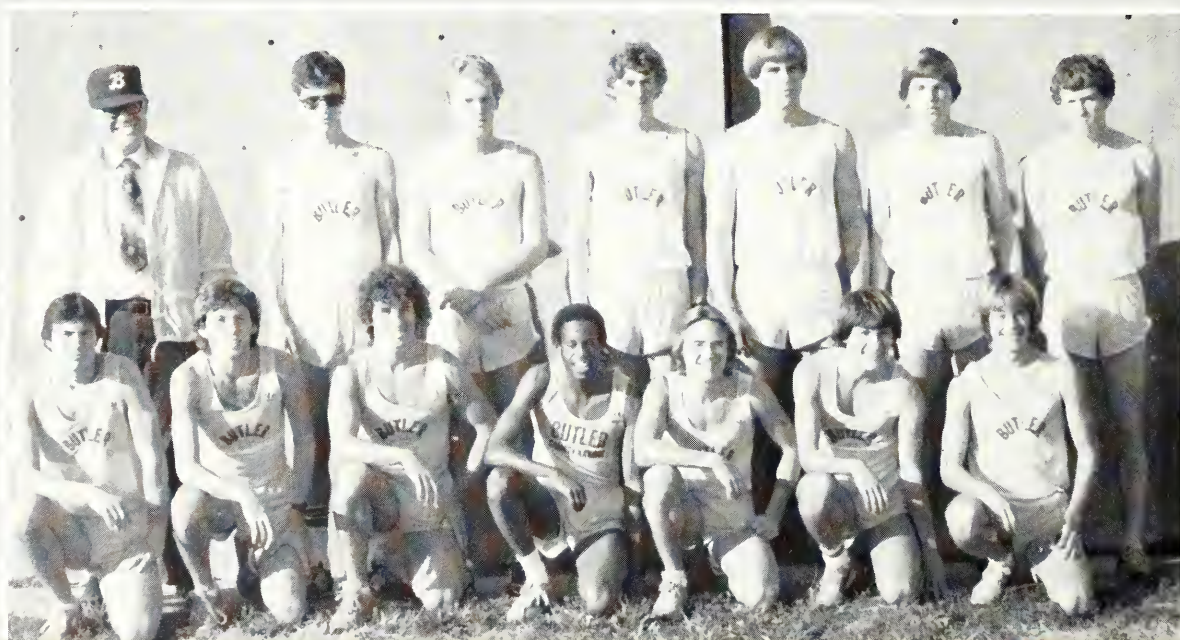

Frankie Nunn was the Grizzlies' number one man in Region VI with a time of 25:07, which earned him All-American. Butler had four harriers break the 26:00 minute barrier with Nunn, Jeff Miller 25:32, Kevin Miller 25:36, and Paul Taylor 25:51.

Ollie Isom is the coach. Butler has placed in the top ten in the nation eight times in 15 years.

Basketball Moves Up

Butler County's basketball team surpassed all expectations in 1982, sporting the second winningest record in the Grizzlie's history.

Before the season started coach Jack Sutter and assistant coach Gene Arnold's goal was to improve upon the 1980-81 record. But by the Christmas break, the Grizzlies had already improved on that mark by standing at 12-2.

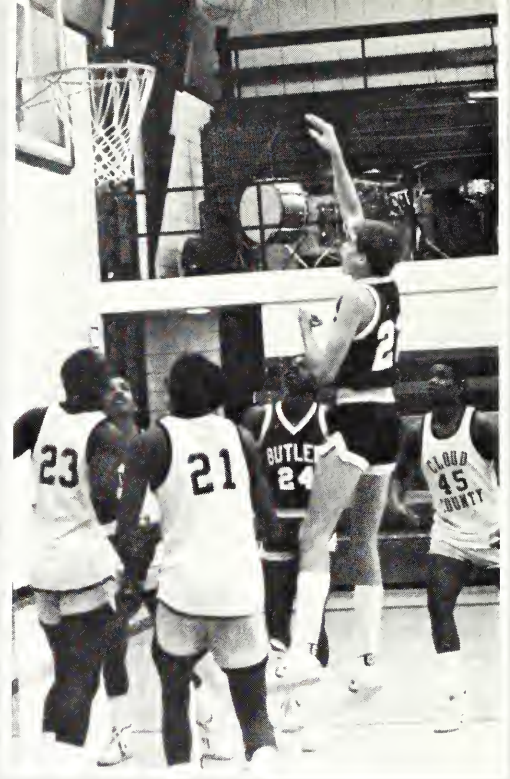

After Christmas, the team went 6-0 in conference play action before falling to Dodge City at Dodge for the Grizzlies first league loss.

Returning sophomore players were Steve Foster, Andre Barber, James Douglas, and Major Craig.

Douglas, East St. Louis, Ill., made the All Tourney Butler Classic and the Forest Park (Mo.) MVP (most valuable player) award for six feet and over. Barber, Topeka, was selected MVP, six feet and under at Forest Park.

At press time the Grizzlies were 21-5. With three games left, the Grizzlies have a shot at winning the Jayhawk Conference.

Henry Ford and Douglas were leading scorers for the team.

JOHN FORD goes up for two.

Women Set Record

The women's basketball team had a slow start this season, but ended the year by running up the scoreboard of 105-57 against Garden City in the final game of the season. The score of 105 set a school record.

This was assistant coach Beth Patterson's first year, along with head coach Tonya Kerschner, at Butler. They remarked, "The women did not start off playing as a team, but coming down the stretch they started to come together and started playing as a team."

The Grizzliettes won their first opener against Allen County 49-39. The Grizzliettes, towards the end of the season began to play like a team and improved their over-all season 9-17 and the league record of 4-8.

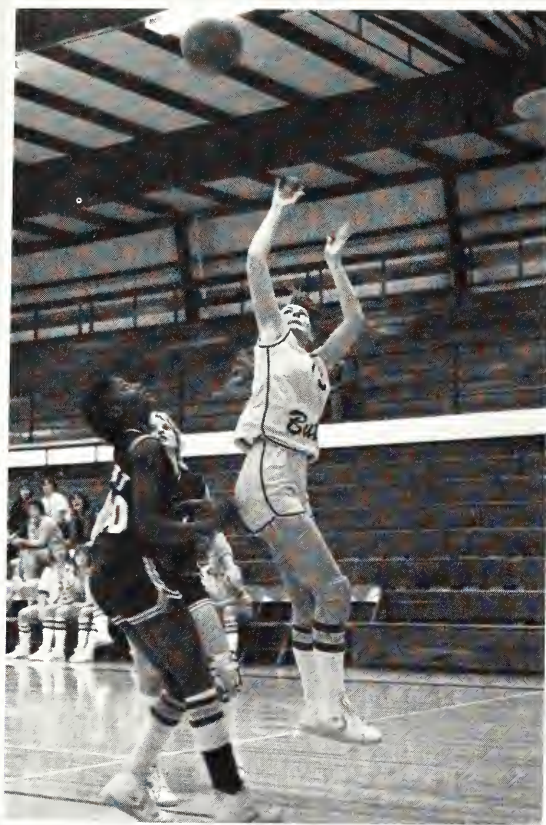

Even though the women came together they did not make it to the play-offs. They will have six women returning next year with hopes of a better season.

Administration, Faculty, Staff

Changing Times - Better Teaching Facilities

Administration Builds

Changing times were in evidence in the accomplishments of the administration.

For the first time in over a decade and a half a new classroom building was built on the campus. Members of the administration studied the needs, feasibility, and financing of the project and presented the idea to the Board of Trustees last June for its approval. The architect's plans were approved and construction started immediately. The building was occupied by its first tenants just before semester break.

Dr. Carl Heinrich, president, said of the school term: "This has been an exciting year. We have set new records in sports, we have set new records in enrollment, and we feel we have set a new record in overall achievement at the college. I am pleased with the year and proud of everyone who has had a part in this success."

DR. CARL HEINRICH ADDRESSES a group of downtown people explaining some of the long range goals of the college.

BCCC Trustees

The Board of Trustees underwent two changes in personnel during the school term. Pat McGee, Augusta, resigned at the end of the fall term and the Board selected Wayne Matlock, Andover, to fill the unexpired term.

Dr. Sue Unger, chairperson of the Board, resigned March 1 and her successor was to be named by the remaining Board members.

The Trustees' approval for a new classroom building came into realization when the building was completed in December.

A termination case for a long-time instructor involving alleged malfeasance at the college had to be dealt with by the Board during the spring term.

The Board's negotiations with the teachers' bargaining unit ended early this year with the teachers' signing in January.

Faculty-Staff

Faculty members number more than 100 including part-time faculty. Some faculty also serve as division chairmen who are classified as administrators.

BCCC faculty members do not have academic rank as do four-year college faculty; therefore the faculty are all called instructors.

The term "staff" covers everyone who works at the college but who is not faculty or administration. But a number of staff members such as the director of buildings and ground are also in administrative positions.

Part-time faculty who service not only the off-campus facilities but also teach on campus now out-number the full-time tenured faculty members who are career teachers with graduate degrees.

Freshmen

Changing Times - Larger Classes

Freshmen Involved In Butler Activities

Enrollment at the college was up this year in comparison to last year. According to registrar Everett Kohls, the main reason for the increase was the jump in tuition at four year state schools.

This year's freshmen moved with the changes and got involved in a wide range of extracurricular activities. Student activities council elected freshman Brenda Johnson as president and freshman Leanne Hillwig as secretary. Freshman Michele Smith was elected state president of the Distributive Education club.

Several freshmen became involved with sports this year. Twenty-six members of the Grizzly's number one football team were freshmen. The cross country team which placed sixth in the nation had seven freshman team members, including Frankie Nunn, who was named All-American. He was the only Kansan to receive the honor this year.

Other Freshmen who got involved in activities include Jody Ferguson who became a Grizzly mascot, and two cheerleaders, Lori Horner and Arlene Reekie. Kim Rising, a Dexter freshman was named football homecoming queen.

Freshmen staff members on The Lantern included Lee White, city/area editor; Jim Keesling; news editor; Cathy Browning, assistant news editor.

Other freshmen found their niches in band, chorus and drama participation.

Sophomores

Changing Times - Full Grandstands

Sophomores Involved

Sophomores became active in several of BCCC's organizations. In sports, the football team boosted 19 returning lettermen and two solid recruits. The 21 sophomores include Mike Nardone, quarterback; Steve Hardesty, wide receiver; Louis Craft, Dennis C. Allen and Rodney Reynolds, running backs; Bruce Jacks, Ken Bowen, Greg Darrington, Greg Blackman, Glenn Crawford, Phil Keys, and Wayne Burns, offensive linemen; Jeff Sanders and A.C. Poynter, defensive backs; Mike Gentry, Jim Nance, Jay Stehley and Brad Wilkinson, linebackers; and Aaron Usher, Fred Finke and Rickie Johnson, defensive linemen. Returning cross country members were Kevin and Jeff Miller, Lyle Keesling, Steve Ades, Kent Wartick, Paul Taylor and Joel Summeairll. The Grizzliettes volleyball team has five returning sophomores: Denise Standefer, Tammy Mann, Annette Sowder, Carolyn McKinsey, Marilyn McKinsey, and two first-year sophomores, Angie Armstrong and Cindy Bowman.

The Honeybears drill team had four sophomores win a Sweepstakes trophy at camp. They were Michele Webb, captain; Roxanne Seager, co-captain; Debbie Bogart and Felicia Butts. The other sophomore members were Karen McGee and Melody Doyal.

The cheerleaders had two sophomores return, Sondra Huggins and Julie Brownwood, and Sophomore Valerie Edwards was elected mid-term. Sophomore Tom Van Anne returned as a "pooh bear" mascot to the delight of the sports fans.

Sophomores Tom Harms, Gary Leach, Deb O'Brien, Alisa Sixkiller, Ted Zweifel and Bill Evans were staff editors of The Lantern. Jay Baumann and Jeff Regier were editors of The Grizzly.

LYLE KEESLING, Burrton sophomore, is an employee of the college bookstore and waits on a customer. Wichita freshman Dana Allred.

'Special' Students

Butler County Community College offers classes for part-time students. High school students, working people, and housewives are just a few of the many students who fall under the special category. BCCC offers special classes in the areas of administration of justice, agriculture, art, auto body, automotive technology, biological science, building trades, business, marketing, data processing, mechanics, drafting, electronics, English, welding, mathematics, psychology, journalism, literature, nursing, and music.

A number of students who have earned degrees but who have come back to school for additional education are also classified as special students.

Spring Enrollment Shows Increase

Second semester enrollment at the college made an astounding 17 per cent jump over the spring semester of last year according to Ev Kohls, registrar. The total number of students enrolled topped at 2,598, including 1,481 oncampus students.

Kohls said that the spring enrollment accounted for an eight per cent increase over the fall semester which is the first time in the history of the school, to his knowledge, that spring has had the higher enrollment.

BCCC students were enrolled in 20,636 credit hours in the spring compared to 20,040 hours in the fall.

Persons pictured in the second semester section of the book either enrolled second semester or did not get their photos taken first semester.

The Classroom

Students, today we are going to discuss an exciting basic rhetorical pattern explaining causal relationships in the essay . . . Students, are you with me? Blink twice, please, if you read me . . .

Spring On The Campus

WILLIAM DOORNBOS and Gary Leach are in costume for the annual children's play produced each spring on the campus. Ron Dean and Von Hardin hang out in the Student Union lounge, a favorite place any time of the year.

JANET CORYELL and Rebecca Kuntz view the poster that Kuntz made announcing the "Civil War Days" to be held on the campus in May. Coryell is the originator of the idea which the Butler Historical Society and El Dorado Art Association helped implement.

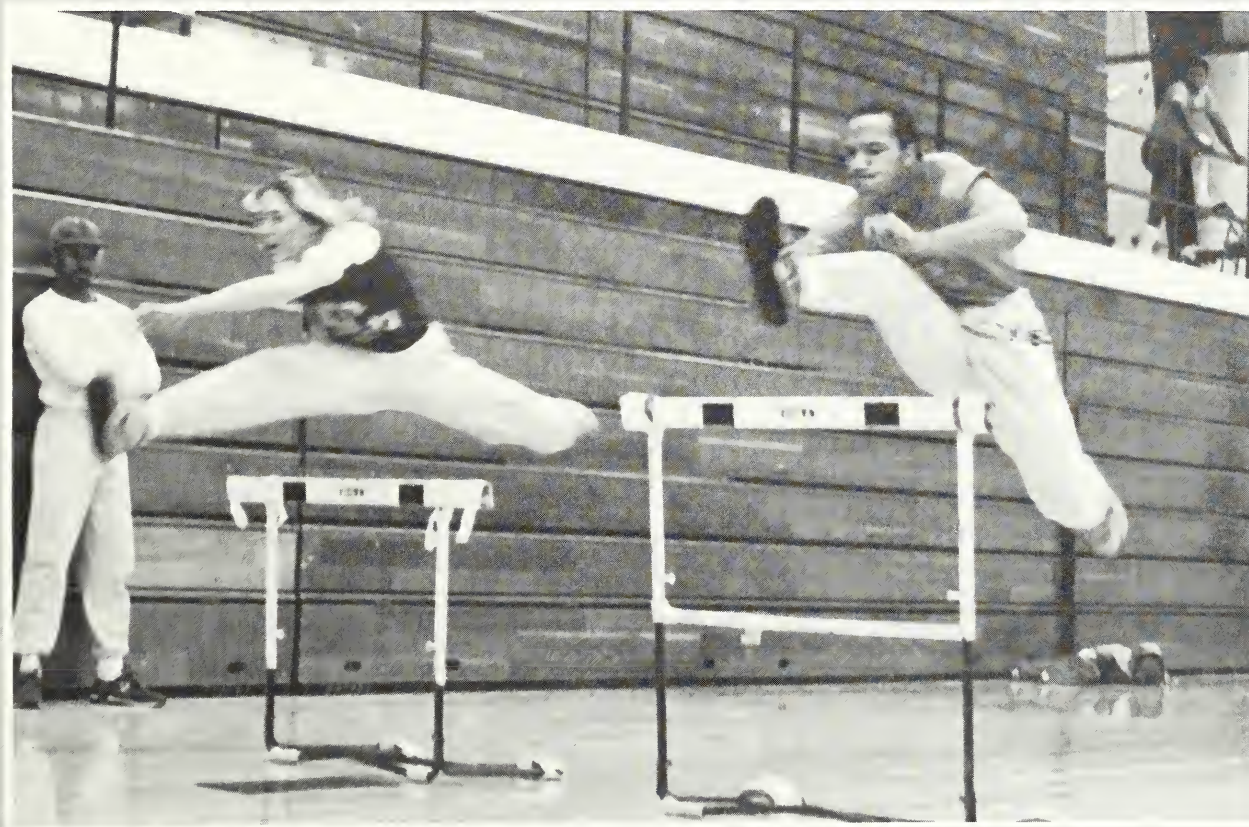

AN EARLY SPRING DAY (even in February) will bring students out in the sun on the campus even if it is only to study. Debbie Sparks, Rick Remsberg, and Heather George make an attempt to concentrate when it is 70 degrees in February.

INSIDE TRACK PRACTICE means that spring and track season are not too far away. Dennis "Tex" Allen stands and watches while Tammy Martin and Tony Shelby practice clearing the hurdles getting ready for the serious competition.

Acknowledgments

We, the staff members of the The Grizzly, would like to thank all the people who have aided and assisted us in getting out the book this year under sometimes adverse circumstances.

It was a year of changes, and the changes affected our production especially during the fall term when the yearbook room was moved twice and the staff did not have a dark room for one semester. Things got better in the spring, but it was not in time to save us for our final deadline of February 15, and we did not make the deadline. Hence, if the book is a week late, we apologize.

We especially wish to give credit to the following persons who contributed photographs and copy for the book:

From The Jungle To The Ocean, The BCCC Thespians Did It All Dramatically

Theater department performers gave two spring productions, one a children's play and the other a Shakespearean production.

The children's show, "The Incredible Jungle Journey of Fenda Maria," was given 14 times on the campus and several times off campus playing to a total of almost 5,000 children.

Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" was the second play of the spring semester, the first Shakespearean play ever produced on the campus. Larry Peters directed both productions.

College Sponsors 'Civil War Fare'

Approximately 1,200 people attended Civil War Fare, May 1 on the BCCC campus, according to Janet Coryell, a faculty member who organized the event.

Morning tours for residents of Mid-America Nursing Center and El Dorado Cub Scout packs were conducted before the event opened to the public at noon.

Members of Crowley's Clay County Company reenacted a Civil War battle twice during the afternoon. Mock battles were fought on the southeast campus field as spectators filled balconies in back of the Gym and lined the "battlefield" for a glimpse of cannon fire and soldiers firing their muskets.

Away from the battlefield, visitors could taste food from the era, listen to lectures and see slides about the Civil War, see exhibits of memorabilia from the era, listen to folk singers and a whole array of activities during the day.

In the evening, an open-air concert by the College's music department and Crowley's Clay County Company was presented under the library. Butler Jazz Arts and the Headliners performed musical selections from the Civil War Era for an estimated 300 people.

A fireworks display lit the night sky over the campus after the concert.

BCCC Nursing Enrollment Increases

A marked increase in enrollment in the nursing program occurred in 1981-82. Due to the growth of the program the department moved to a new area in the recently completed 100 building.

The department implemented a bi-level nursing program at the college. The bi-level program enables a student to take the practical-vocational nurse license examination after completing the first two semesters of the nursing program and the summer practicum. A student may exit the program at that point or return for the second year to complete the associate degree level of the program.

Nursing students gain experience in clinical agencies including S.B. Allen Memorial Hospital and Knutson Manor, in El Dorado; St. Francis Hospital, Wesley Medical Center, St. Joseph's Medical Center, and the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Wichita, according to Pat Bayles, director of the program.

ROSE MAYGINNES learns the technique of using suction on a patient while her instructor watches.

DELIA DARRINGTON, BCCC nursing student, wheels an amputee patient around the hospital as one of her many duties.

STUDENT NURSES Judy Afton and Mike Dunagan study an anatomical model in the clinic.

DIANE WORRELL examines nursing equipment in the clinic.

422 Enter I-M Events

Nineteen intramural events drew 422 entries this year, I-M Director Jeanette Malone said. Checkers, dominoes, chess, and golf were also added. Intramural champions are as follows: Intramural All-Star-Jim Keesling, tennis doubles-Gary Alford and Don Weatherby, tennis mixed doubles-Jim Bothner and Debbie Bogart, dominoes-Paul Lewis, chess-Mohammad Ghaderi, checkers-Thomas Sanchez, pool doubles-John Kendricks and Kent Hudson, pool mixed doubles-Marjorie Dillmon and Bill Pope, bowling mixed doubles-Ali Hamrah and Ann Hamrah, and golf-Fred Oberlechner and Dick Osterbuhr.

INTRAMURALS DOUBLES bowling champions are the husband and wife team of Ali and Ann Hamrah.

TENNIS DOUBLES champions are Don Weat erby and Gary Alford.

2nd In Conference

Freshman Jeff Becker started the track season for the Grizzlies when he became an Indoor All-American by throwing the shot put 47 feet 10 inches and placing fourth at the NJCAA Indoor Championships at Champaign, Illinois.

Other Grizzlies were soon to follow in winning form as three school records fell during the season. Two records fell to jumpers, Mike McInerney and Henry Ford. McInerney earned a school record when he pole vaulted over the bar at 14'2½" at the conference indoor meet held at KU. Ford earned his record when he high jumped over the bar at 7'¼" at the Hutchinson night relays. Another record was set by Dennis Allen when he ran the 300-yard dash in 31.2 seconds.

Three Grizzlies qualified for the NJCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships held at San Angelo, Texas.

Henry Ford, Kevin Miller, and Paul Taylor all represented Butler County in the National Championships. Ford competed in the high jump, Miller in the 10,000-meter run and Paul Taylor in the 800-meter run.

After winning second at conference in Hutchinson, Coach John Francis commented, "I thought the kids competed super. I was concerned that we wouldn't get the competitive edge, but everyone went out and did his best." Francis also said the conference meet is the only meet in which the squad really tries to win. "In the conference meet, we are competing with the best."

Nationals: 2 Compete

Two women tracksters qualified for the NJCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships, held in San Angelo, Texas on May 20-22.

Although Tammy Martin didn't emerge as a regional victor, she set a school record in the 100-meter low hurdles. Her time was 14.89 seconds.

Shari McCullough, going 65.24 seconds, capped the 400-meter hurdles at the regional meet in Garden City to qualify her for nationals.

John Francis, women's track coach's comments about the season were, "We were real happy with the way the gals competed. As the team went, we didn't have enough in numbers to seriously compete."

Other members of the track team included Barb VerKinderen, Linda Stackley, Denise Standerfer, Debbie Sparks, Becky Anderson, Rachel Seager, Rosemary Sommers, Vickie Comrie and Allison Leake.

Baseballers End Season At Tourney

The Grizzly baseball team had another winning season this year with a final record of 19 - 13.

The team made it to the Western Division tournament at Great Bend but lost its first two games in the double-elimination tournament.

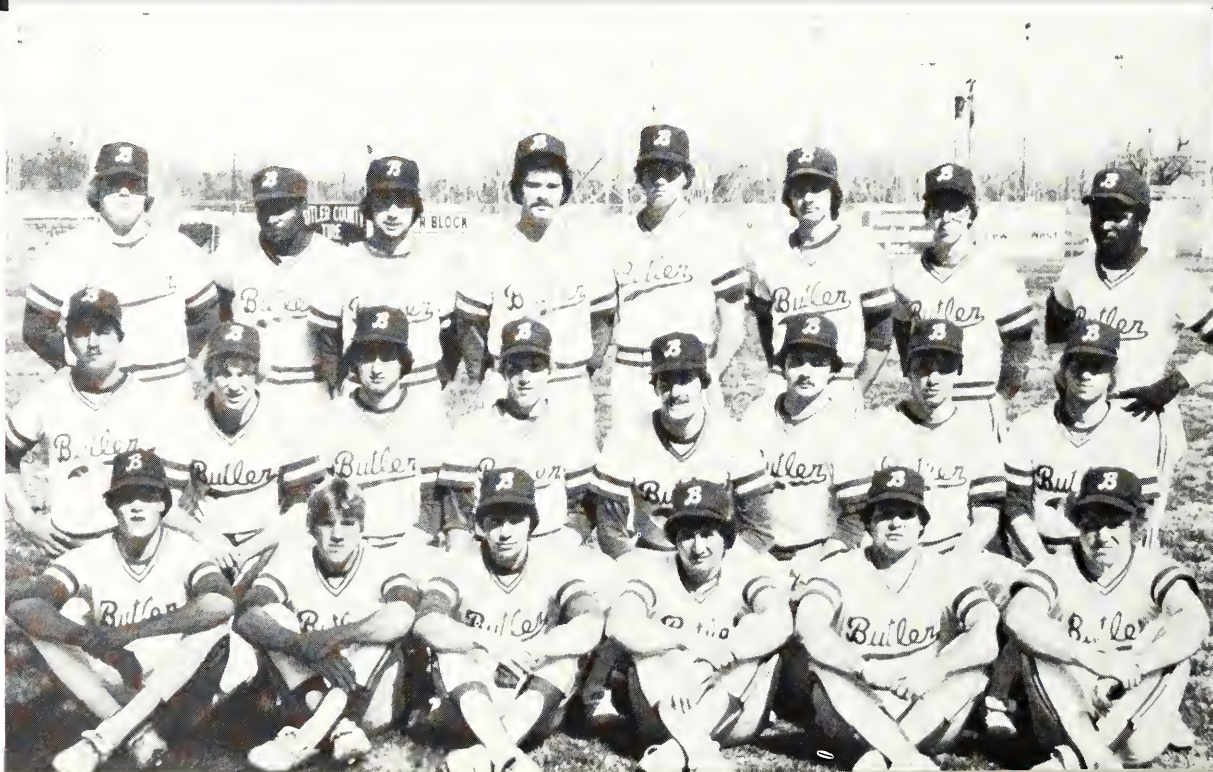

Mostly freshmen comprised the team this year. With only four sophomores leaving, Coach Phil Anderson said that he is looking for a solid nucleus next year in the form of returning freshmen.

Mid' Season Slump Hurts Women's Team

At the end of the regular season, the women's softball team had a record of 10-15. Coach Debbie Sawtelle said in March, "They are all ready to play and looking forward to the season." The women's softball team started the season with a double header against St. Johns, coming out victorious with scores of 13-3, 7-4. They then defeated Cowley County on different dates 7-4, 9-3, 19-9 and Central College 10-6, Hesston 21-6.

The women then went in to a slump losing seven straight games. Coach Sawtelle said, "Our biggest concern is to start winning so that we can get a spot in the playoffs."

Their first loss of the season was with Cloud County and Coach Sawtelle said, "We didn't hit the ball well at all, and we also did not handle the game pressure too well. We hit the ball better and plotted better defense." They came back to split one with Dodge City 4-13, 8-7. They won two of their last six games.

Men's And Women's Tennis Teams Compete

The highlight of the womens tennis season was in the Region VI tennis meet in which Barbara Schoffstall was named to the Region VI tennis singles team. Members included Schoffstall, Stephanie Shipley, Lenda Sherifff and Lisa Rush.

With the loss of its number one player at semester and a severe hand injury to Mark Prosser, the men's tennis team had its work cut out for it. Probably the biggest day of the season was a third place finish in their own doubles tourney.

Golfers Place Fourth At Regional

Butler golfer Curt Pruitt earned the right to compete in the NJCAA tournament at Scottsdale, Arizona. The El Dorado freshman competed in the national event on June 1.

Pruitt finished as eighth high individual in the Region VI tournament, in which the Grizzlies placed fourth, at Lawrence's Alvamar Hills Municipal Golf Course. Pruitt was eight strokes back after the first day, but he turned in the second best score of the second day. As a team, the Grizzlies shot a 687, whereas Regional Champion Coffeyville shot a 630 as a team.

Dexter Bloodworth shot a 39 on the last nine holes of a 27-hole tournament on Mariah Hills Golf Course at Dodge City to tie the Grizzlies for second with Kansas City Community College. Coffeyville won the tournament by a sizeable 25-stroke margin. Pruitt was the fifth medalist in the tourney, carding rounds of 40, 37 and 39 for 116. Scott Wilson was second low scorer with rounds of 38, 37 and 45 for 120. Bloodworth totaled 124 with rounds of 41 and 44 before the 39 which tied the Grizzlies. Roger Burd turned in 128 with nine-hole scores of 44, 43 and 41.

The Grizzly linksmen had an exceptionally good year placing fourth at regionals. Felix Adams was coach.

Dinner Honors 'Purple And Gold'

Order of the Purple candidates were honored at an annual dinner on Friday, April 30, in the Student Union cafeteria. Robert Peterson, BCCC English and speech instructor, was master of ceremonies. Sam Warfel, professor at Fort Hays State University, addressed the candidates on "When You Care Enough, You Do Your Very Best."

Lisa Hagan, El Dorado, received the Frank Cron History Award, presented by Charles Heilmann, representing the Butler County Historical Society. The award is given to an outstanding history student. Hagan also received a gold medallion for her high grade point average. James Sibley was recognized as the only graduate compiling a 4.0 average.

David Longfellow and Don Toburen of the BCCC faculty presented honor graduates with medallions.

The 94 sophomores who were candidates for honors bring to 981 the number of students named to Order of the Purple since the organization was started in 1937 at El Dorado Junior College. The first group included only seven students. Order of the Purple was organized to recognize graduates for scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

SAM WARFEL, professor of language and literature at Fort Hays University, addresses the Purple and Gold candidates at the spring dinner.

500 Graduates Look Towards Future

Nearly 500 Butler County Community College candidates for graduation, the largest number in history, walked across the stage on May 15. Commencement began with the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" as the graduates marched into the field house.

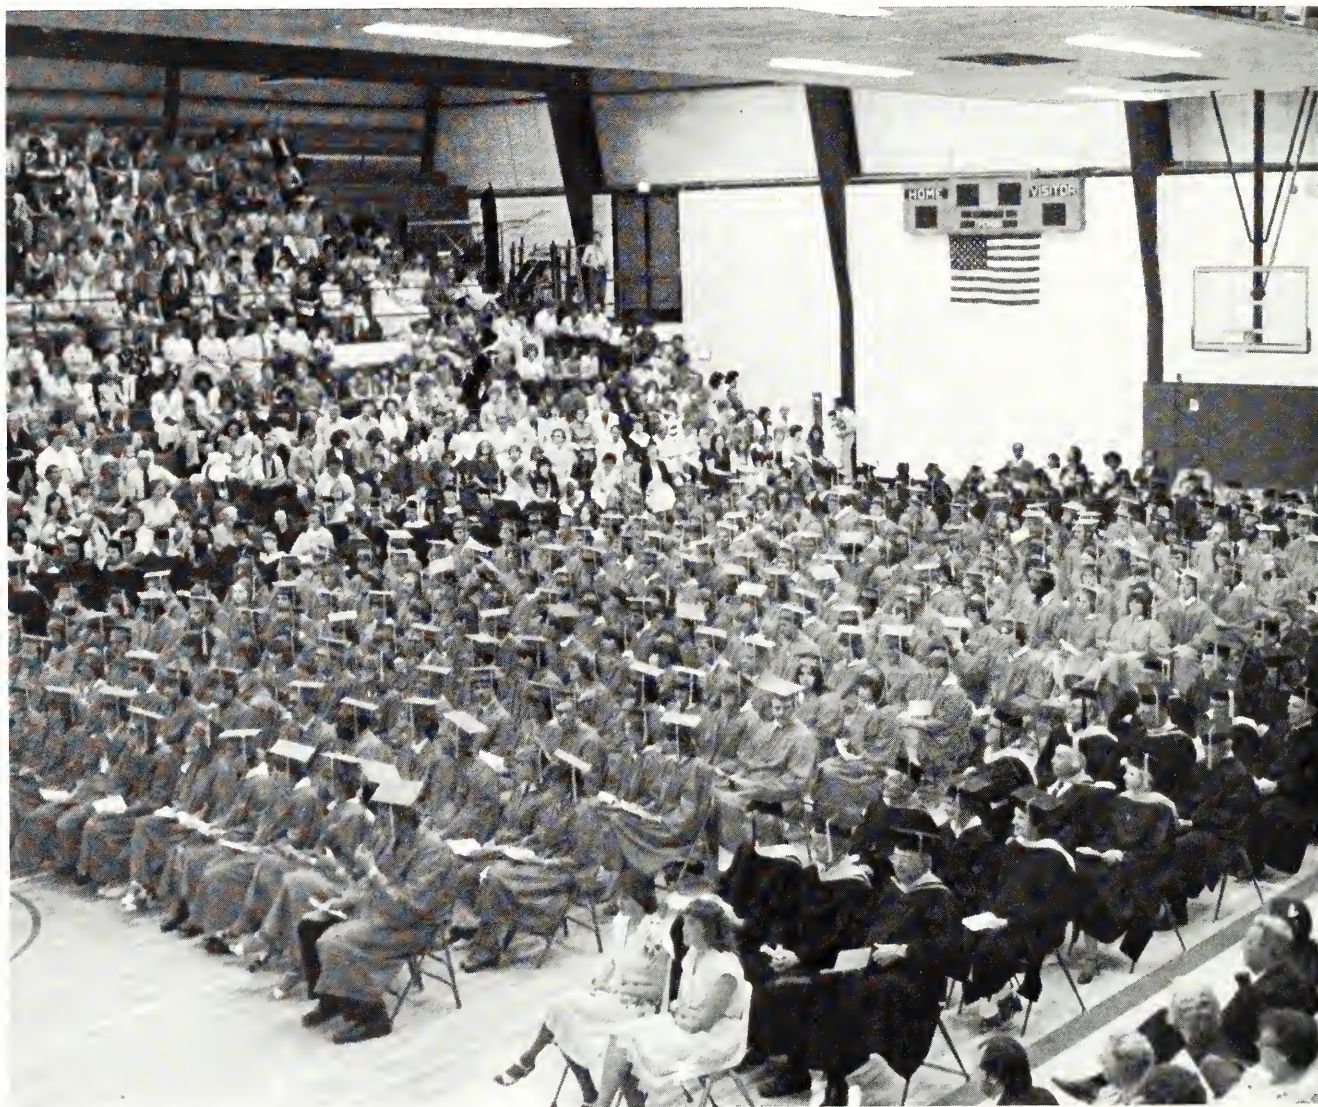

Mrs. Kay Arvin, a Wichita attorney, addressed the class of 1982 after being introduced by President Carl Heinrich.

Keith Martin, chairman of the Board of Trustees, presented the class members with their degrees.

The processional and recessional music was performed by BCCC's brass ensemble. The college choir and the ladies' ensemble presented vocal music.

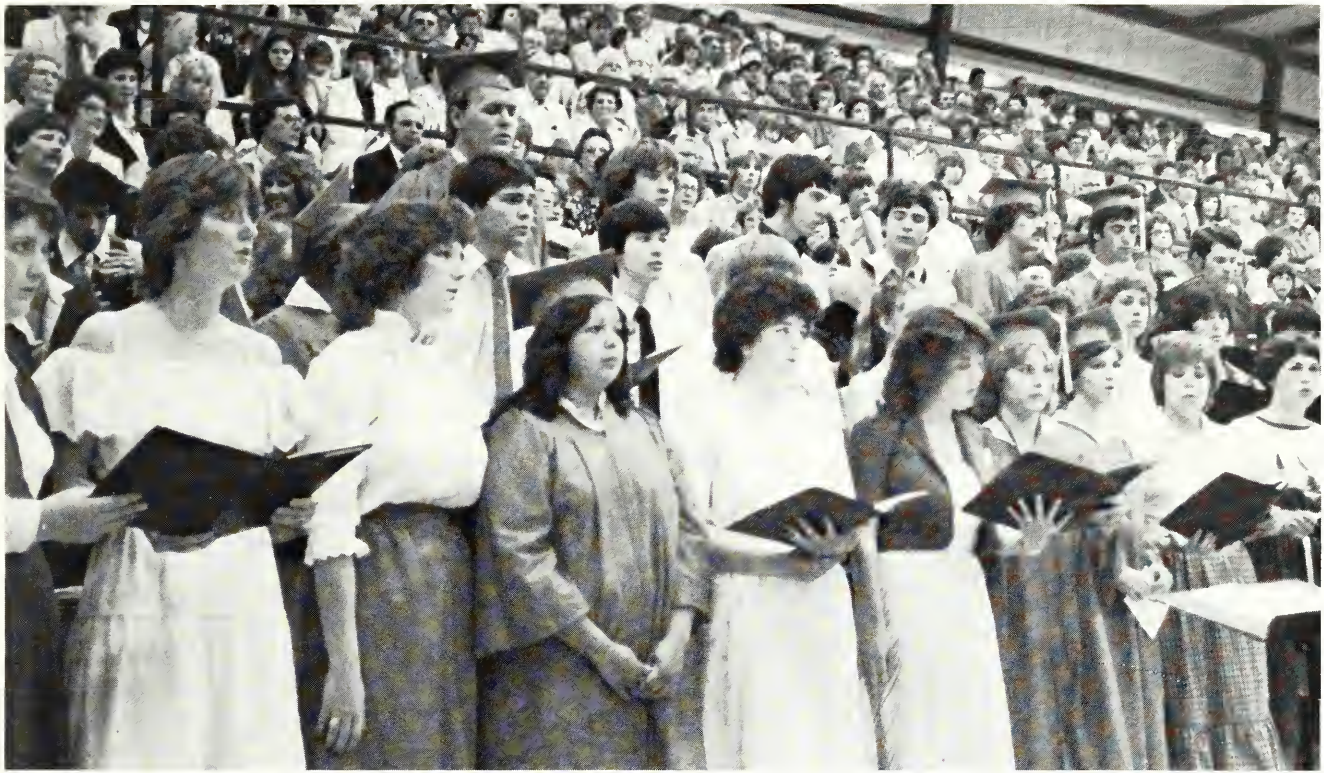

JEFF MILLER receives his degree from Board chairman K. Martin.

GRADUATES, faculty, family and friends of the graduates pack the field house for commencement ceremonies.

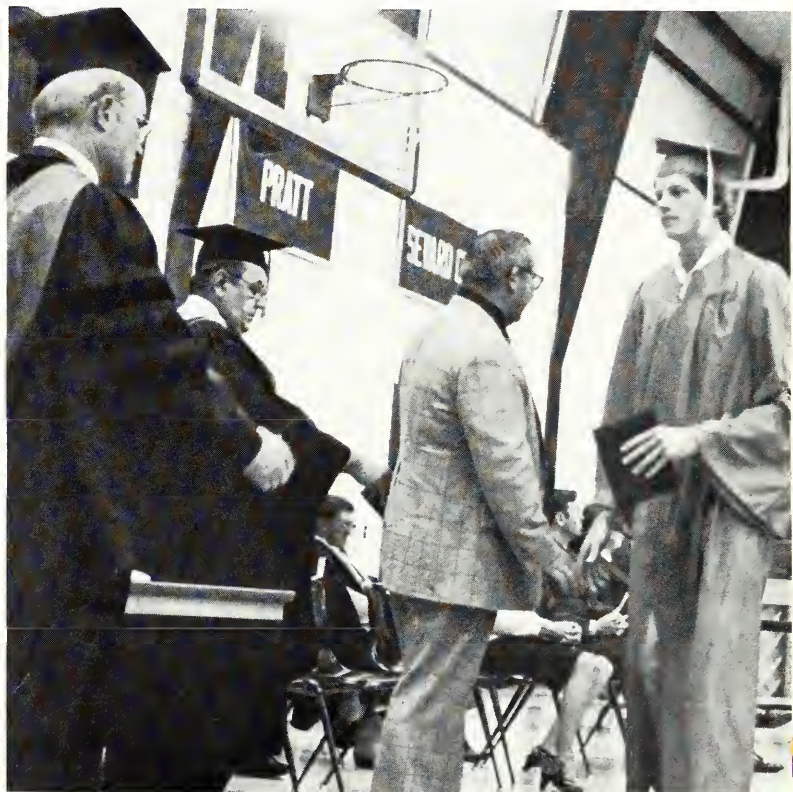

THE COLLEGE CHOIR, including graduates, prepare to sing "Reach for a Star" at the commencement exercises held May 15.
